

Warm Up

Match the scientist from Column B with the correct statement from Column A

Column A

1. The first scientist to describe living cells as seen through a microscope
2. A scientist who observed that cork was composed of tiny, hollow boxes that he called cells
3. A scientist who concluded that all plants are composed of cells
4. A scientist who concluded that all animals are composed of cells
5. This scientist acknowledged that cells come from preexisting cells

Column B

Schleiden

Schwann

Hooke

Leeuwenhoek

Virchow