

Warm Up

Each of the following statements is false. Change the underlined portion to make it true.

1. Aquaculture is an important human activity that affects the biosphere.
2. Cotton was planted in the 1980's in many southern states covering fields for miles and miles year after year. This is an example of crop exchange.
3. Extinct species are protected and cannot be legally hunted because limited numbers of the population are still living.
4. Modern farming techniques have been introduced as a result of urban development.
5. Species can become endangered because of overhunting and broaching.