

Warm Up

1) A species that enters an environment where it has not lived before is referred to as ____.

endangered

2) A species whose population size is declining so rapidly that it could soon become is extinct is referred to as ____.

extinct

3) A species in which there are no surviving organisms left and therefore cannot reproduce is referred to as ____.

invasive

