

Warm UP

1. _____ is the movement of molecules from an area of greater concentration to an area of lesser concentration.

2. The difference in concentration between two regions is called a _____ (2 words).

3. Covering of every cell, the _____ (2 words) controls what goes in and out of the cell.

4. Transport that does not require energy is called _____ transport.